

Artist Call Out

The Zionsville Parks and Recreation Department is soliciting input from local amateur artists (ages 14+) to provide artwork for large scale butterfly wings as a part of the Zionsville Butterfly Trail. The wings will serve as a fun backdrop for pictures, selfies and promote conservation efforts within Zionsville Parks.

Deadline for artwork submission to the Zionsville Parks Department is March 3, 2023.

- Artists will be notified by April 3 if they have been chosen for this year's trail.
- The selected artists will pick up their pair of primed plywood wings at Town Hall by April 21.
- Completed wings must be returned to the Parks Department by May 19 for prep and installation.
- Artwork will be on display June - August in select parks and locations around Zionsville.

Please complete the following information for use in the Zionsville Butterfly Trail brochure. Return this completed form and your art submission by March 3.

Zionsville Parks and Recreation

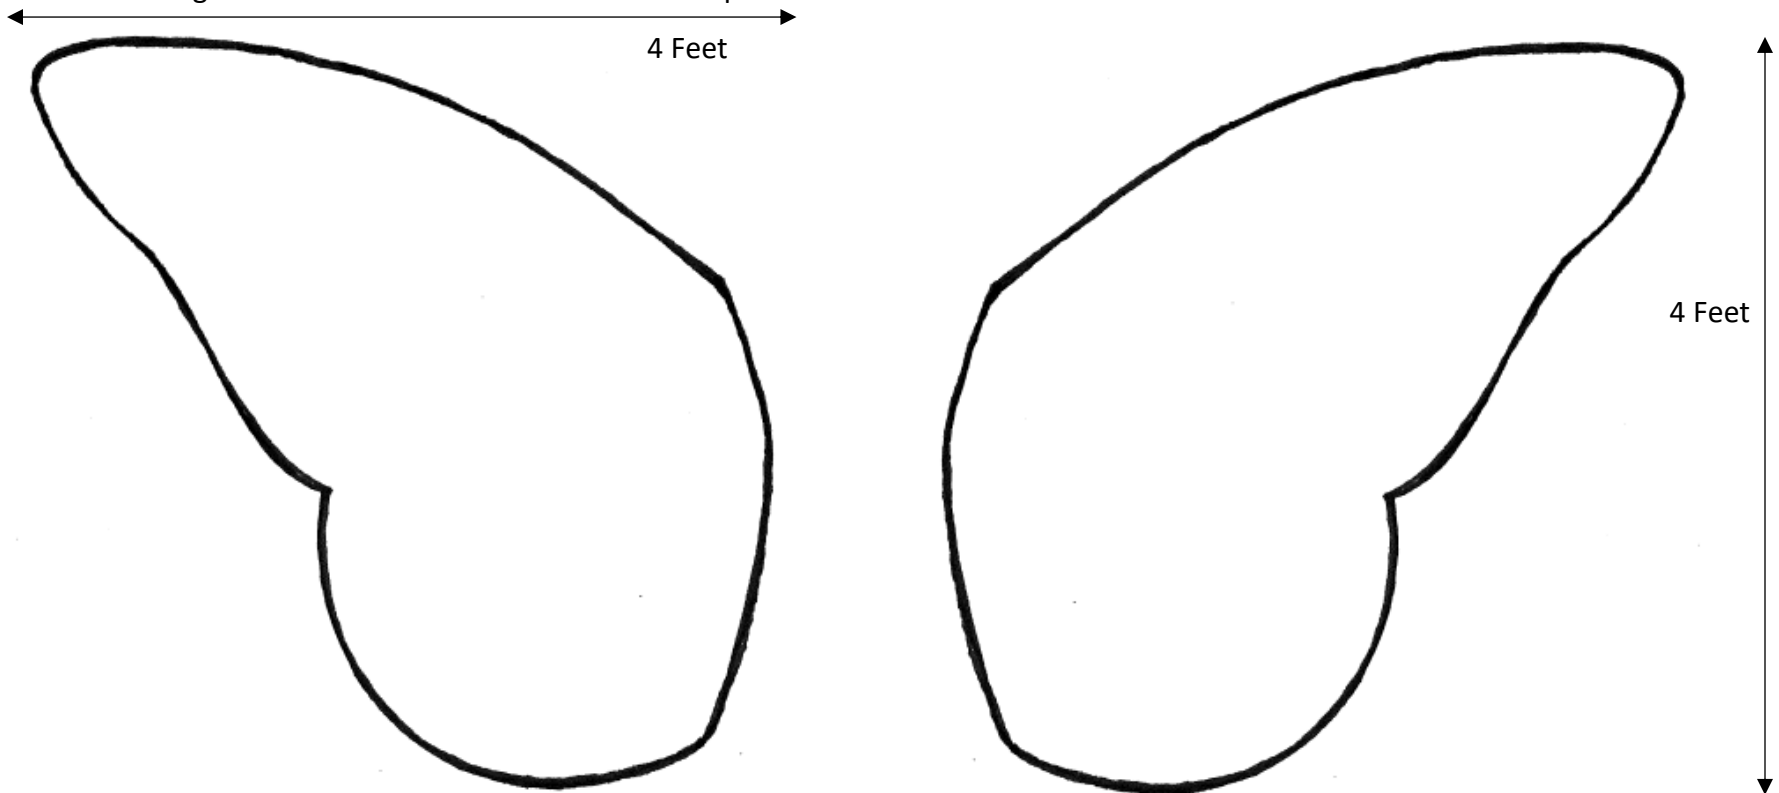

To enrich our community by providing unique, accessible, and safe cultural, leisure, and recreational services that nurture youth development and inspire people to learn, play and engage with our unique and welcoming town.

2023 Zionsville Butterfly Trail Artwork Submission

Guidelines:

- Submissions should reflect an appreciation of nature, art, or culture, providing artwork that is fun and attractive to a wide range of ages and highlights our parks and community.
 - Submissions will not include political, religious, or offensive content.
 - Final artwork must use acrylic paints to withstand the outdoor elements.
 - Each submission is for a pair of butterfly wings. The two wings can be a continuation of an art piece, complement each other, or provide contrasting subjects (i.e. day and night). Please use the template below for your design. Final Wings will be approximately 4' wide by 4' high.
- Note: Actual wings will have some variation from the template below.

Return completed form by March 3 (email, mail or hand delivered to Zionsville Town Hall):
