

Student Recycled Art Contest

The Zionsville Parks and Recreation Department invites students to submit artwork created from recycled materials for the Zionsville Greenfest Recycled Art Contest taking place on Saturday, April 22, 2023, at Zionsville Town Hall.

Artwork submissions accepted April 1 – 15, 2022 during regular business hours at Zionsville Town Hall and the Hussey Mayfield Memorial Public Library.

- Artwork must use a minimum of 50% recycled materials.
- Artwork may be two-dimensional or three-dimensional but shall not exceed 16" in any direction.
- Artwork will be on display on Saturday, April 22, 2023, from 9:00 am – Noon at town hall.
- Artists may collect their artwork at town hall on Saturday, April 23rd between Noon and 3:00 pm. Please email wschrepferman@zionsville-in.gov if you require different arrangements.
- Submissions shall not include political, religious, or offensive content.
- Art will be judged in three age categories: 5 - 8 years, 9 - 13 years, and 14 - 18 years.
- Awards will be announced via social media at the conclusion of the event. Artists are not required to be present to win and will be contacted via email to arrange prize collection.

Return this completed form and your art submission by April 18th to Zionsville Town Hall or the Hussey-Mayfield Memorial Public Library during regular business hours. We look forward to seeing your recycled art!
